

D'YOUVILLE

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

an Educational Leadership program for the transformational leader

The D'Youville - Canisius Higher Education and Student Affairs Administration (HESAA) partnership provides a unique opportunity to complete your doctorate at an accelerated pace. Recent Canisius graduates who have completed the HESAA M.S. program can bypass the professional core course work at D'Youville. They will also receive a 10% tuition discount for the remaining 38 credits required. This yields a substantial tuition savings. Students who take advantage of this partnership can more rapidly earn a doctorate in Educational Leadership.

Contact EDL Program Director, Dr. Julia Hall at 716-597-8058 or hallj@dyc.edu for more information.

What makes D'Youville unique?

an Educational Leadership program for the transformational leader

Our doctoral program in Educational Leadership prepares educational professionals to meet the social, economic, political, and cultural challenges now confronting educational institutions and society as a whole.

What do students say about the program?

“I attained a promotion into a leadership position in education even prior to graduating due to my doctoral candidacy. EDL has given me the confidence and strength to believe in myself and my accomplishments and achieve a top career in this field and succeed at it.”

“Obtaining my doctorate in the EDL program resulted in my promotion. This program has provided me the language, skills, and ability to shine in my newly appointed leadership role. The professors work with you at your ability level to bring out your strengths. Each class taught me something different about myself, the educational system, and the world. EDL has greatly changed how I approach my leadership role and expanded my larger philosophy and career goals.”

“EDL has provided me the tools to become a scholar in my field. The professors not only encourage us to think critically, but they create a safe space to engage in challenging discussion. This program had a positive impact on my career trajectory in so many ways. I am thankful for this incredible experience.”

“The faculty is impressively supportive. They get excited when you challenge yourself and push you to do so. The literature, research, and resources are current, innovative, supportive, and professional. EDL has resulted in me excelling professionally. The growth and learning experience in this program is unmatched.”
