Nearly a decade before he was elected Pope John Paul II, Karol Cardinal Wojtyla, then archbishop of Krakow, Poland, visited Buffalo as part of a 14-city tour of the United States. During his stay in the Queen City, Cardinal Wojtyla visited with faculty and administrators from Canisius College. He spent the morning of Wednesday, September 17, 1969, having coffee in the office of Canisius College President Rev. James M. Demske '47, S.J. Also in attendance were (pictured l-r): Rev. Edward B. Gillen, assistant to the president for planning; Msgr. Joseph E. Stelmach, chair of the executive committee of the Permanent Polish Chair; Rev. Edward F. Maloney, S.J., executive vice president of Canisius College; Karol Cardinal Wojtyla; Henry J. Osinski, a 1935 graduate of Canisius; and Canisius President Rev. James M. Demske, S.J.
