Though he was not an alumnus of Canisius, the late Frank G. Raichle HON. '68 was always closely associated with the college. Having served on its Board of Trustees and Board of Regents, in 1981 he established the Raichle Pre-Law Center at Canisius to enhance the quality of the undergraduate experience for students who wish to attend law school or enter the legal profession. This spring, the Raichle Pre-Law Center and its alumni commemorate the 25th year of the program and its benevolent benefactor, Frank G. Raichle. (SEE PAGE 12 FOR FULL STORY.)
