

PHOTO COURTESY OF CANISIUS COLLEGE ARCHIVES

AS YOU WERE

Established in 1925 as the Coffin Club, the honor society originally recognized outstanding students whose efforts advanced the interests and welfare of Canisius College. Renamed DiGamma in 1952, the honor society now recognizes outstanding alumni, faculty and administrators of Canisius, as well as deserving undergraduate students.

Pictured left: The DiGamma Honor Society inducts its newest members at the 1952 junior prom.

Pictured above: The DiGamma pin, presented to the honor society's newest members at the annual induction ceremony.

To view the newest class of DiGamma inductees, turn to page 26.