

As You Were

When the college's yearbook, The Azuwur, was first published by the Canisius Class of 1922, the editors wrote, "In putting forth this volume, it is '22s' fond hope that it is setting a precedent which will be religiously followed by succeeding senior classes."

Eighty-five years later, The Azuwur continues to serve as a bright memory for alumni, who reflect back on the pages and see themselves as they were in the days of philosophy or trigonometry.

Currently, the Canisius College Archives has a limited number of extra yearbooks available to alumni. There is no charge other than $4.00 for shipping and handling, if necessary. The yearbook volumes date back to 1922 through 2003 and are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Interested alumni can contact Kathleen M. DeLaney, Canisius College archivist, at 716-888-2196 or at delaneyk@canisius.edu.
