

as you were

PHOTO COURTESY OF CANISIUS COLLEGE ARCHIVES

SEPTEMBER 1958:

Canisius College students and staff line the book shelves in the new library, at the corner of Jefferson Avenue and Hughes Street. Ten years after it first opened, the library underwent a significant expansion project. At the rededication ceremony, the library was formally named in memory of the late Canisius Librarian Rev. Andrew L. Bouwhuis, S.J.

Now, more than 40 years later, the college is planning a phased renovation of the Bouwhuis Library, which will result in the creation of a new, technology-based learning commons. Part of that renovation includes the January 2009 opening of Tim Horton's, a full-service coffee shop with complete breakfast and lunch menus. To learn more, turn to page 4.