The Department of English at Canisius College is accepting applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor in Shakespeare and Early Modern English literature for fall 2016. The normal teaching load is 3-3, with scholarly productivity and service expected. Courses will include Shakespeare, upper-level classes in area of specialization, and two courses in a first-year writing sequence. We welcome candidates with interests in our humanistic core curriculum which explores issues of diversity, ethics, global awareness, and social justice.

Ph.D. by September 2016. College level teaching experience desired. Additional responsibilities include student advisement and a commitment to departmental and college-wide service.

The review of applications will begin immediately. The deadline to apply is March 18, 2016. To apply, send letter of application and CV (dossiers will be requested following an initial screening) to: Chair, English Department, Canisius College, 2001 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14208 or hr.recruiter@canisius.edu (please put ENGLISH is the subject line of your email). The electronic submission of applications is strongly encouraged. PDF format is preferred.

Canisius College, founded 1870, is a Jesuit comprehensive liberal arts college with strong commitments to social justice and to preparing students to be reflective women and men for others. The English Department is especially enthusiastic about this mission and committed to faculty diversity. To learn more about the English Department at Canisius College go to: http://www.canisius.edu/english/

Canisius College, a Catholic and Jesuit university, is an independent, co-educational, medium-sized institution of higher education. Minority candidates strongly encouraged to apply. Canisius College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.