NOTE TO PRINCIPAL, GUIDANCE COUNSELOR, OR INSTRUCTOR:
The student named above is applying for admission to the Canisius College Summer Honors Program. The purpose of this program is to provide highly motivated students with an opportunity to immerse themselves on a college campus and develop strategies for dealing with the intense, special demands of college study.

Your candid and thoughtful appraisal of this applicant’s readiness for this college experience is essential in order to evaluate the student’s application for admission to the program. We hold in high regard your opinion of the student’s intellectual and social maturity to manage the challenges of college level study.

If the student successfully completes one or both of the Honors-level courses being offered, s/he will earn three college credits for each course that can be applied at Canisius College or many other institutions of higher learning.

Given the above information, do you feel this student is academically and socially able to successfully participate in the Canisius College Summer Honors Program? □ Yes □ No
