Name:_________________________________________ (last) (first) (m.i.)

____________________ (student ID#) __________________ (Date)

TESL 590 Foundations, Theory, & Practice of Bilingual General & Special Ed (contains content from 581, 582, 583) (3) _______

TESL 584 Curriculum, Assessment, & Methods of Teaching Native Language Arts (3) _______

TESL 585 Curriculum, Assessment, & Methods of Teaching English as a Second Language (3) _______

TESL 586 Methods of Teaching Literacy Skills for Subject Areas in the Native Language (3) _______

TESL 587 Evaluation of Curriculum & Assessment of Native Language and TESOL Instruction (3) _______

The Bilingual Education program meets the New York State requirements for the Bilingual Education Extension for classroom teachers. The New York State Bilingual Education Assessment (BEA) Exam must also be completed to meet certification requirements.

For Candidates seeking a Special Education focus, substitute TESL 591 for TESL 586

15 credit hours

Revised
03/25/2014