

Urban Leadership Learning Community

Learning Goals and Objectives

Canisius College

Student Learning Goal 1: ULLC students will be effective oral communicators in both small and large group settings.

Students will:

Objective A: Develop and lead a small group discussion of course reading assignments and report out to the other groups;

Objective B: Construct and deliver an effective speech to a large group on a pre-assigned topic;

Objective C: Converse confidently with members of a diverse campus population.

Student Learning Goal 2: ULLC students will be Critical Thinkers.

Students will:

Objective A: Construct and analyze arguments;

Objective B: Synthesize divergent ideas;

Objective C: Apply present knowledge to subsequent problems.

Student Learning Goal 3: ULLC students will be service-minded individuals.

Students will:

Objective A: Develop and carry out activities that promote cultural diversity on campus;

Objective B: Assume positions of responsibility in both the campus and local communities;

Objective C: Demonstrate an awareness of people's needs in both national and international arenas.