You have been found responsible for academic dishonesty. I have received from your instructor a "Notification of Academic Dishonesty" form and have placed it in the confidential Academic Dishonesty file. Please refer to the most recent Canisius College Catalog for information concerning an appeal process, should you wish to begin one. Should you be involved in another case of academic misconduct, you may be subject to further sanction beyond that assigned by your instructor.

- No Previous record on file.
- Previous record on file. Further additional sanction will be determined by Associate Dean.
- Previous record on file. Further additional sanction will be determined by The Community Standards Board. You will be contacted by the Hearing Panel Coordinator concerning the order of proceedings. Information regarding the Community Standards Board can be found in the Student Handbook.
