

School of Education and
Human Services:
Graduate Education
ONPE

Degree Requirement Summary
On-Line Physical Education
Master of Science in Education Degree
Professional or Permanent Certification
(Unofficial Document)

Name: _____
(last) (first) (m.i.)

_____ (student ID#)

_____ (Date)

Core Curriculum:

Core courses may be taken in any sequence

- PEG 530 Physical Education for the Exceptional Individual (3) _____
- PEG 560 Motor Development (3) _____
- PEG 651 Coaching Theory and Techniques (3) _____
- PEG 540 Sport Psychology: Performance Enhancement (3) _____
- PEG 518 Controversial Issues in Health and Society (3) _____
- PEG 516 International Health Perspectives (3) _____
- PEG 550 Analysis of Curriculum and Teaching (3) _____
- PEG 543 Sport Psychology: Counseling or PEG 670 (3) _____
- Advanced Teaching Methods in Physical Education 24 Credits

Research Courses: taken after core courses are completed

- PEG 515 Tests and Measurement in Physical Education (3) _____
- PEG 680 Research Methods in Physical/Health Education (3) _____
- PEG 584 Comprehensive Exam (584 is the last course taken in this program) (3) _____

Total
Program
Hours
33 credits

This program is designed for physical education professionals who already possess initial or provisional teaching certification in physical education. The master of science degree in physical education will meet the master's degree requirement for permanent or professional certification in the state of New York.

This program does NOT lead to a health certification.

The online physical education master's program can be completed entirely on the web. There is no residency requirement.

Program code: 28576 Hegis: 0835.

Revised 10/2009