ART HISTORY EVENTS
Every semester, the art history program brings in distinguished scholars and area museum professionals to present their research and expertise to our community.

Thursday, October 10, 2019
1:00pm | SC
Aaron Ott, Curator for Public Art, Albright-Knox Art Gallery
“A Shared Sense of Place”
During his tenure as Curator of Public Art at the Albright-Knox, Aaron Ott has overseen the installation of more than thirty public artworks across Western New York. Aaron will discuss the nuances and logistical complexities of executing large-scale artworks in public spaces as well as the innovative community partnerships that have contributed to the success of the Albright-Knox Public Art Initiative. He will also explore the ways we interact with art beyond the walls of the museum and the positive effects that public art can have on neighborhoods and the people who call them home.

Thursday, April 2, 2020
11:30AM | SC
Yvonne K. Widenor, Visiting Assistant Professor
“Redirecting the Gaze: Self-Portraits by Women Artists”
When first exploring a publication entitled 500 Self-Portraits, I was struck by the very low number of self-portraits by women illustrated in the book. This led me on an exploration of self-portraiture, and they continue to intrigue me: whose self-portraits do we “value” more as a society? What motivates an artist to create a self-portrait? To whom is the gaze directed? Is it back at the artist or at the viewer?
STUDIO ART EVENTS
Canisius College is fortunate to have three distinct gallery spaces on campus. Professional artists’ work may be seen in the Bouwhuis Library in the Peter A. and Mary Lou Vogt Gallery, often accompanied by receptions. Students’ work is displayed in the Alumni Gallery, located in the hallway linking Old Main to the Library and the Peter A. and Mary Lou Vogt Gallery on the fourth floor of Lyons Hall. Exhibits noted below will take place in the Peter A. and Mary Lou Vogt Gallery in the library.
