Opportunities:
Genesee Community College recruits a wide variety of students including international, EOP, non-traditional, and first generation students to provide them with opportunities for growth in their education. As college education increases in cost, many students turn to community college to save money and test the waters. Learn about how these unique students fit into other college systems when they transfer. The GAC is encouraged to look for opportunities to intern/shadow in different departments to maximize learning. GCC is located between the cities of Buffalo and Rochester for easy access to ample entertainment and experiences in western New York.
