SUICIDE STATISTICS:

*Suicide is the second leading cause of death among college students, and the third leading cause among all people ages 15-24.

*Almost 10% of college students seriously consider attempting suicide.

*Among adults, 18-24 year-olds attempt suicide more often than any other age group.

*More teenagers and young adults die from suicide than from all medical illnesses combined.

*Of the over 15 million college students in the U.S., an estimated 1,100 die by suicide each year (about 3 per day).

*Every 2 hours and 11 minutes, a person under the age of 25 dies by suicide.

*Factors that can trigger suicidal behavior in college students range from difficulties adjusting to a new environment; a lack of adequate social or coping skills; academic and social pressures; feelings of failure or decreased performance; a sense of alienation and lack of social support; or the onset of mental illness.

Become a GATEKEEPER
Do you want to become a Gatekeeper?

In as little as an hour-long session you can become trained to help a student or loved one in a time of crisis by Canisius College’s certified instructors:

- Eileen Niland, LMHC, NCC  Director, Counseling Center
- Michael Cammarata, LMHC, NCC  Associate Director, Counseling Center
- Alison Smith, LCSW  Counselor, Counseling Center
- Charita Price, LMHC  Counselor, Counseling Center

Steps of QPR:

1. Question the person about suicide
2. Persuade the person to get help
3. Refer the person to the appropriate resource

A Gatekeeper is someone trained to recognize a suicide crisis and knows how and where to find help.
