POSITION DESCRIPTION

TITLE: Graduate Assistant, Specialized Advising, College of Arts & Sciences
Canisius College

REPORT TO: Dr. Barbara Porter, Associate Dean, College of Arts and Sciences
Canisius College
2001 Main Street
Buffalo, NY 14208
(716) 888-2910

COMPENSATION: 100% tuition waiver of program cost
$1000 stipend

QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor’s degree; Experience working or interning in a tutoring center or advisement center, working with international students and/or experience as a college student studying abroad is preferred. Undergrad major in psychology or social sciences preferred. Strong oral and written communication skills, excellent interpersonal and organizational skills, and proficiency in Microsoft Office are required. Ability to manage details with accuracy and precision. Ability to prioritize and adjust to varying workloads, manage a variety of tasks, and meet various deadlines with changing priorities and interruptions. Prefer a candidate willing to make a two-year commitment to the position.

TERMS: Must be available for HESAA graduate student training in early August.
Starting date August 1, 2018, ending May 10, 2019; Approx. 20-25 hours per week, including occasional evening or weekend hours as needed.

Responsibilities: The graduate assistant for the College of Arts & Sciences will support the Associate Dean in a variety of academic contexts and work collaboratively with the Griff Center, the Office of Student Abroad, the Office of International Student Programs (ISP), and other divisions of the college. Primary responsibilities will be involve At-Risk and underprepared students, as well as, Study Abroad students but secondary responsibilities will include projects related to international students and academic advisement. The responsibilities noted below are subject to change relative to the needs of Canisius College and the College of Arts & Sciences.

College of Arts and Sciences Projects
• Assist with various projects based on the changing needs of the Associate Dean and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences

General Academic Advisement:
• Maintain and update faculty advisors resource page on D2L
• Assist with basic advising support for students with routine questions
• Assist with researching students’ academic situations when SOC reports are filed
• Function as a mentor in the Academic Mentoring Program, mentoring 10-12 students on academic probation each semester
• Assist with preparations for Student of Concern Meeting and attend bi-weekly meetings as needed
• Assist with the review of progress and deficiency reports and the resulting outreach to students

Study Abroad Advisement:
• Assist with a wide range of study abroad advisement activities including updating, giving, and arranging presentations as well as updating key advisement documents
• Creation and revision of Study Abroad registration materials
• Revision of Study Abroad application review materials
• Prep study abroad application materials for associate dean’s review
• Assist with preliminary advising of students for study abroad

International Student Advisement:
• Assist with the design and presentation of international student orientation academic sessions and student advisement and registration dinner.
• Consult with and assist in the creation of exchange students’ schedules
• Participate in/assist with International Student Orientation Weekend