SPECIFIC DIRECTIONS

Section A - Student Information

Question 6: Provide the month and year for which you are applying for financial aid. For example, if you plan to attend the entire 2022-2023 academic year, you would write in 8/22 through 5/23. However, if you are only going to attend the Spring Semester, then the correct response would be 1/23 through 5/23.

Question 7: List your income earned in 2020. Include all types of income.

Question 8: List your income taxes that you paid.

Question 9-11: List the value of your assets as of today.

Section B - Applicant's Family Information

Provide information about all members of the student applicant's family. Be sure to complete the entire grid.

Section C - Parent Income/Assets

This section is to be completed by the parent(s) of the student. If the parents are married or unmarried yet living together, include both incomes. If the parents are separated or divorced include only the income/assets of the custodial parent. (If the custodial parent is now remarried you must also include the step-parent information).

Question 14 - 18: List the parent(s) income information.

Question 19: List the value of the parental assets as of today.

Question 20: List the present market value of other real estate (for example, a summer home). Do not include the home you live in.

Question 21: Report the current market value you may have from trust funds, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, bonds and other securities, commodities, precious and strategic metals, etc. Do not include the value of your retirement plans.

Question 22: If you own a business and/or a farm, include the value of land, machinery, equipment, livestock, investments, and buildings. Do not include the value of the home if it is part of the farm. Do not include the value of a business that you own that has 100 or fewer full-time employees.

Section D - Parental Information

This section should be completed by the parent(s) submitting this form.

If you have special circumstances that are not reflected on this form please notify the Financial Aid Office in writing. Please include the student's name, address, and Canisius College I.D. number.
